

Cloze Reading

Vocabulary

Directions:

Read the paragraph and fill in a word that makes sense in the context.

Hurricanes are one of the most dangerous natural disasters _____ there is no way to avoid their path. It is _____ to follow any safety procedures that your community has in place during this time. If a hurricane warning is in place where you live, one very important action to _____ is to make plans for your safety. The first thing you should do is stock up on supplies such as batteries, any medications, fresh drinking water, and a _____ of food. You can be _____ to your neighbors by checking with them to make sure they have an emergency plan. If a hurricane is _____ your area, you should have the radio or news on at all times to ensure you know if an evacuation is needed. One of the most _____ things to remember is to stay inside during a hurricane. Going outside during this _____ storm is very dangerous. Lastly, if a hurricane is coming your way, make sure you _____ your car with fuel in case an evacuation is needed.